Departure from Rome

This morning, Pope Francis began his 46th international Apostolic Journey, this time to Luxembourg and Belgium.

Shortly after 7.00, a group of around ten homeless people, men and women, who shelter at night beneath the colonnade in Saint Peter's Square or in the streets around it, accompanied by Cardinal Konrad Krajewski, Almoner of His Holiness, greeted Pope Francis at Santa Marta before his departure.

The Holy Father then transferred by car to Leonardo da Vinci airport in Rome-Fiumicino, from where he departed at 8.29 on board an ITA Airways A321 bound for Luxembourg.

The aircraft carrying the Holy Father landed at Luxembourg-Findel International Airport at 9.56.
