◆ Press Conference for the presentation of the New Economic Framework for the Holy See

Introduction by Cardinal George Pell

Attachments

At 12 noon today, in the Aula Giovanni Paolo II of the Holy See Press Office, a press conference will be held on the theme: "New economic framework for the Holy See".

Speakers: Cardinal George Pell, Prefect of the Secretariat for the Economy; Joseph F.X. Zahra, Deputy Coordinator of the Council for the Economy; Jean-Baptiste de Franssu, Member of the Council for the Economy; Ernst von Freyberg, President of the Supervisory Council of the Institute for the Works of Religion (IOR).

Introduction by Cardinal George Pell

His Eminence Cardinal George Pell, the Cardinal Prefect of the Secretariat for the Economy today announced several important new initiatives to improve the economic and administrative management of the Holy See and Vatican City State.

These changes initiated by the new Secretariat for the Economy follow detailed analysis of the findings and recommendations of Pontificia Commissione Referente di Studio e di Indirizzo sull'Organizzazione della Struttura Economico-Amministrativa della Santa Sede (COSEA) and are considered essential to address identified weaknesses and risks while also creating a new platform for improved economic management in the future.

All changes have been endorsed at the recent meetings of the Council for the Economy (July 5) and the Council of Cardinals (July 1 - 4) and approved by the Holy Father.

The changes affect:

1. APSA
2. PENSION FUND
3. VATICAN MEDIA
4. IOR

Cardinal Pell said he was delighted the Holy Father had approved these important initiatives and he and the Council for the Economy are grateful for his regular input and constant support.

"There are many challenges and much work ahead. It is clear from the work of COSEA that a number of issues, such as the transfer of APSA's Ordinary Section, Pension Fund, Vatican Media and IOR need to be addressed urgently. The Holy Father has made it clear these changes should move forward expeditiously."

The Cardinal Prefect also announced the establishment of a small Project Management Office (PMO), led by Mr. Danny Casey formerly Business Manager of the Sydney archdiocese, to implement and introduce some of the proposed changes beginning with the transfer of APSA's Ordinary Section into the Secretariat for the Economy. The PMO will report directly to the Prefect of the Secretariat for the Economy.

The Secretariat for the Economy will begin in September 2014 to prepare the budget for 2015. The goal is for each dicastery and administration to prepare a budget to be followed. Expenditure (within agreed framework) will be the responsibility of each dicastery and administration. Expenditure will be checked against the budgets during 2015 and any over-expenditure will be the responsibility of the dicastery and administration involved.

"We look forward to moving ahead with this work in the coming months."

1. APSA

The Ordinary Section of APSA is transferred to the Secretariat for the Economy. This is an important step to enable the Secretariat for the Economy to exercise its responsibilities of economic control and vigilance over the agencies of the Holy See, including policies and procedures concerning purchasing and the suitable allocation of human resources as defined in the Motu Proprio Fidelis Dispensator et Prudens.

The remaining staff of APSA will begin to focus exclusively on its role as a Treasury for the Holy See and the Vatican City State. A key early task will be continuing the work of establishing close relationships with all major Central banks as recommended by MoneyVal, which will continue to ensure the liquidity and financial stability of the Holy See. All sovereign institutions will have an account at APSA which will serve as a Treasury for them.

2. PENSION FUND

The Council for the Economy has appointed a technical committee to study the situation of the Pension Fund and to make proposals to the Council for the Economy before the end of the year. The Council recognized and acknowledged that the pensions being paid today and for the next generation are safe but the fund needs to ensure there are sufficient funds for future generations in a changing environment. Many Western countries have faced challenges in their pension system over the last years. It is anticipated that new statutes would be prepared by the end of 2014 to adapt the Pension Fund's organization to the new economic-administrative structure of the Holy See. The technical committee will be headed by the Council's Prelate Secretary Mons. Brian Ferme. Four lay experts will contribute their professional experience and expertise: Mr. Bernhard Kotanko (Austria), Mr. Andrea Lesca (Italy), Mr. Antoine de Salins (France), Prof. Nino Savelli (Italy). In addition, there will be representatives from the Council for the Economy, the Secretariat of State and the Pension Fund.

Further background on the 4 lay experts in the technical commission of the Pension Fund

Bernhard Kotanko, Austrian, is a Member of the Board of Directors at Oliver Wyman AG, Switzerland, and a Managing Director of Oliver Wyman's global Financial Services Group, a renowned consulting firm working for the leading private and public institutions globally. He is heading the EMEA insurance practice.

Andrea Lesca, Italian, is the General Manager of Intesa Sanpaolo Previdenza SpA, the Pension Fund Company of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group. He has a wide experience in managing pension fund operations. In addition he has been part of a technical working Group at the Italian Ministry for Welfare for the implementation of new regulations on pension funds. He holds a degree in General Economics from the University of Pavia.

Antoine de Salins, French, is the Deputy General Manager and Chief Investment Officer of the asset management company of Groupama Group. Between 2003 and 2011 he was the executive director of the French Reserve Fund, a public institution managing the assets for employees of the French private sector.

Prof. Nino Savelli, Italian, is professor of Risk Theory at the Faculty of Banking, Financial and Insurance Sciences of the Catholic University in Milan. He graduated in Statistical and Actuarial Sciences at the University of Rome La Sapienza with a PhD in Actuarial Sciences and is teaching in the field of Actuarial Sciences and Risk Management. Before teaching he served for more than 10 years in the Italian Insurance Supervisory Authority and in October 2013 he was appointed by the supervisory board of EIOPA (European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority) as academic member of IRSG - Insurance and Reinsurance Stakeholder Group, located in Frankfurt.

3. VATICAN MEDIA

A committee has been appointed to propose reforms for the Vatican Media. The committee will publish a report and a reform plan within the next 12 months after considering the COSEA report. The objectives are to adapt the Holy See media to changing media consumption trends, enhance coordination and achieve progressively and sensitively substantial financial savings. Building on the recent positive experiences with initiatives such as the Pope App and the Holy Father's Twitter Account, digital channels will be strengthened to ensure the Holy Father's messages reach more of the faithful around the world, especially young people.

The members of the committee come from Vatican staff and from senior international experts. They have been chosen for their expertise in communications while reflecting the universality of the Catholic Church.

Senior international experts: Lord Christopher Patten (UK, will act as President of the committee), Mr. Gregory Erlandson (USA), Ms. Daniela Frank (Germany), Fr. Eric Salobir OP (France), Ms. Leticia Soberon (Spain, Mexico), and Mr. George Yeo (Singapore).

Vatican staff: Mons. Paul Tighe (Secretary of the Pontifical Council for Social Communications, will act as Secretary of the committee), Giacomo Ghisani (Vatican Radio), Mons. Carlo Maria Polvani (Secretariat of State), Mons. Lucio Adrián Ruiz (Vatican Internet Service) and Prof. Giovanni Maria Vian (L'Osservatore Romano).

Our Sunday Visitor also publishes the English language edition of L'Osservatore Romano for North America.

Erlandson has worked in the Catholic press for more than 30 years. He served as president of the Catholic Press Association of the United States and Canada from 2011 to 2013 and was recently reelected to his third term as a member of the board of directors of the CPA. He was co-host of the 2012 Catholic Media Conference in Indianapolis.

Before serving as editor of the OSV Newsweekly national Catholic newspaper and as editor in chief of the Publishing Division of Our Sunday Visitor, Erlandson reported from the Rome bureau of Catholic News Service (1986-1989). From 1983 to 1985 he was news editor for the National Catholic Register. He attended The Graduate School of Journalism at the University of California at Berkeley.

He is currently a consultant for the Pontifical Council for Social Communications. Greg has served two terms on the U.S. bishops Communications Committee and was on the board of the Association of Catholic Publishers (previously the Catholic Book Publishers Association). He is also co-founder of Redeemer Catholic Radio in northeast Indiana.

He has published articles in both the Catholic and secular press, and in 2010 was co-author of Pope Benedict XVI and the Sexual Abuse Crisis: Working for Reform and Renewal.

Daniela Frank, born in 1962 in Munich, is the Executive Director of the Catholic Media Council (CAMECO), Aachen (Germany), a research and consultancy office in communications and media, at the service of local Churches and communicators in developing countries and Central and Eastern Europe as well as of Christian funding agencies. She is a Consultant of the Pontifical Council for Social Communications and consultant to the Advisory Committee of Radio Veritas Asia. She holds a doctorate in Communication and an MA in Philosophy of Language. From 2003 to 2013, she was World President of the Christian Life Community (CLC).

Father Eric Salobir o.p. is the General Promoter of the Order of Preachers for Social Communications.

While his educational background was in business, he has been involved in evangelization through the media since his entry into the Dominican Order. He first served as chief editor of an ecumenical radio station in northern France, and has developed new types of radio programs for evangelization. He was elected to the board of Directors of the French Federation of Christian Radios (FFRC) and he worked for four years to support Catholic mass media.

In 2002, together with a group of friars, he founded a retreat service online named « Retraite dans la Ville » (Retreat in the City), which became one of the key players on the French speaking Internet. In 2004 he became responsible for the communication of the Rosary Pilgrimage in France and forged partnerships with Catholic media to promote Marian activities.

In 2006, Father Salobir joined the team of the French catholic weekly show « Le Jour du Seigneur » (The Day of the Lord), on the public TV channel France 2. He has been responsible for the digital development and the production of a web series and short films, and has covered several celebrations of the World Youth Day.

He is also the founder of the think tank OPTIC (Order of Preachers for Technology, Information and Communication), and he collaborated for eight years with the Permanent Delegation of the Holy See to UNESCO.

Three years ago, he was called by the General Master to join the Curia of the Dominican Order, where he coordinates communication and develops preaching projects through the media. He has also designed the Dominican Order's private social network.

Born in Mexico City, Dr. Leticia Soberon is a Psychologist from the Pontifical University of Salamanca (1985) and Doctor (PhD) in Social Sciences (Communications) of the Gregorian Pontifical University (2008). He has also edited a dozen books, including Il filo interrotto (The Broken Wire) on the difficult relations between the Vatican and the international press (2012).

4. IOR

Following the confirmation of the IOR's mission by the Holy Father on 7 April 2014 and under the guidance of the Secretariat for the Economy and its Council, the IOR has announced plans for the next stage of development.

The Holy Father's Council of Cardinals (C9), the Secretariat for the Economy, the Supervisory Commission of Cardinals and the current IOR Board of Superintendence have jointly agreed that this plan shall be carried out by a new executive team led by Jean-Baptiste de Franssu.

He will assume office as new President of the IOR on July 9, 2014. Ernst von Freyberg has agreed to serve a period of transition to ensure an orderly hand-over.

Jean-Baptiste de Franssu said "it's an honour to have been called to implement the changes that are now required to further transform the IOR into a dedicated service provider for the Church".

Over the next three years, the IOR's Statutes will be revised and its operations redesigned, following a set of three strategic priorities:

1. Strengthening the business foundation for IOR;
2. Gradually shift assets under management to a newly created, central Vatican Asset Management (VAM), in order to overcome duplication of efforts in this field among Vatican institutions;
3. Focus IOR on financial advice and payment services for clergy, congregations, dioceses and lay Vatican employees.

The IOR is in a phase of peaceful transition. The first stage of the reforms, led by Ernst von Freyberg has been completed. Excellent progress has been made through adherence to international standards and the resultant transparency is evident in the second annual report which was fully audited by Deloitte. A new anti-money-laundering (AML) framework has been put in place and every effort continues to be made to comply with this framework. The internal compliance department, supported by Promontory has closely reviewed 18,000 clients. Von Freyberg's leadership in this first stage has cleared the decks for the beginning of the next phase to be led by President-elect Jean-Baptiste de Franssu who will devote himself full-time to his new task. Because of other commitments, President von Freyberg is unable to dedicate himself full-time to IOR duties.

In the different financial agencies reporting to the Secretariat for the Economy, a general pattern of clerical-lay expert cooperation has been followed. The exact nature of this governmental cooperation at IOR is yet to be determined. The five members of the Commissione Cardinalizia will continue their involvement and will be joined by Cardinal Josip Bozanic of Zagreb, Croatia. They are Cardinal Santos Abril y Castello (Archpriest of the Papal Basilica of St Mary Major), Cardinal Thomas Christopher Collins (Archbishop of Toronto), Cardinal Pietro Parolin (Secretary of State), Cardinal Christoph Schönborn (Archbishop of Vienna) and Cardinal Jean-Louis Tauran (President of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue).

Six new lay members will be appointed to the Board of IOR including Mr. Jean-Baptiste de Franssu (France, as President), Mr. Clemens Boersig (Germany), Prof. Mary Ann Glendon (USA) and Sir Michael Hintze (UK).

Monsignor Alfred Xuereb, Secretary-General of the Secretariat for the Economy will be non-voting Secretary of the Board of IOR.

Monsignor Battista Ricca remains as the Prelate of the IOR.

Further background on the lay members of the board:

Jean-Baptiste de Franssu is Chairman of INCIPIT, an M&A advisory and consulting firm.

Up to the end of October 2011 he was Chief Executive Officer of Invesco Europe and a member of the Invesco Worldwide management committee.

Dr. Boersig joined Deutsche Bank in 1999 as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. At the beginning of 2001, he became a member of Deutsche Bank's Management Board and one year later also took on additional responsibilities as the Chief Risk Officer. From May 2006 to May 2012, Dr. Boersig was Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Bank AG. Since June 2012 he has been a member of the bank's European Advisory Board. Prior to his career at Deutsche Bank, Dr. Boersig spent almost three years at RWE AG, Essen, the leading German power company, where he was Member of the Management Board and Chief Financial Officer. He had previously worked for twelve years at Robert Bosch GmbH, Stuttgart, seven years as Member of the Management Board. Between 1977 and 1985, he was with Mannesmann Group, Düsseldorf, first in the Corporate Planning Department and subsequently, from 1984, as Chief Financial and Administrative Officer of the Mannesmann-Tally business unit.

Dr. Boersig was born in 1948 in Achern/Baden. He is married and lives in Frankfurt am Main and Munich. After completing his studies of business administration and mathematics at Mannheim University in 1973, Dr. Boersig was Assistant Professor at the Universities of Mannheim and Munich from 1973 to 1977. He received his doctorate degree (Dr. rer. pol) from Mannheim University in 1975 and has held a honorary professorship from Munich University since 1995.

Dr. Boersig has supervisory board mandates at Bayer AG, Daimler AG and Linde AG and is Member of the board of directors at Emerson Electric Company. He is also a Trustee of the International Financial Reporting Standards Foundation (IFRSF).

Among his engagements in research, education and training Dr. Boersig is Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the European School of Management and Technology (esmt). Furthermore, Dr. Boersig is Chairman of the Management Board of the Friends of the Historical College in Munich.

His cultural activities include the Chairmanship of the Management Board of the Cultural Committee of German Business in the Federation of German Industries (BDI) e.V., membership on the Board of Directors of the New York Philharmonic, Chairmanship of the Board of Trustees of the Festspielhaus Baden-Baden e.V., as well as being a Trustee of Friends of Bayreuth e.V.

Mary Ann Glendon is the Learned Hand Professor of Law at Harvard University and a former U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See. She chairs the Holy See's Select Committee on Legal Matters in the United States and in 2013 was appointed by Pope Francis to the Commission of Reference charged with the duty of studying the IOR and making recommendations for its future. She was President of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences from 2004 to 2014, and has represented the Holy See at various international conferences including the 1995 U.N. Women's conference in Beijing where she headed the Vatican delegation. She is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a past president of the UNESCO-sponsored International Association of Legal Science.

Sir Michael Hintze, AM, GCSG, is a businessman, philanthropist and former Australian army officer who has over 30 years' experience in global financial markets both as a markets practitioner and in the formulation of governance in financial markets. He is the Founder, Chief Executive and Senior Investment Officer of CQS, one of Europe's leading multi-strategy asset management firms. Prior to establishing CQS in 1999, Sir Michael held senior positions at leading global financial institutions including CSFB (1996-1999) and Goldman Sachs (1984 - 1996). He began his career at Salomon Brothers in 1982. Sir Michael has been a member of a number of finance industry committees including the Markets Development Committee of the London Stock Exchange, as well as having participated on committees at LIBA and ISMA. More recently, he is a Founder Trustee of the Hedge Fund Standards Board and in 2014 was appointed by the Australian government to the International Advisory Panel of Australia's Financial System Inquiry.

Since its inception in 2005, the Hintze Family Charitable Foundation has provided funding to over 200 charities. Major donations have, amongst others, provided funding to The Natural History Museum in the UK, the Sculpture and Medieval and Renaissance galleries at the Victoria & Albert Museum, Trinity Hospice in south London, established the chair of International Security at the University of Sydney and enabled the restoration of Michelangelo's frescoes in the Pauline Chapel at the Vatican. He is also a Trustee of the UK's National Gallery.

Sir Michael holds a BSc in Physics and Pure Mathematics and a BEng in Electrical Engineering both from the University of Sydney. He also holds an MSc in Acoustics from the University of New South Wales, an MBA from Harvard Business School and received a Doctor of Business (Honoris Causa) from the University of New South Wales.

Introduzione del Cardinale George Pell

Sua Eminenza il Cardinale George Pell, Cardinale Prefetto della Segreteria per l'Economia, ha annunciato nuove importanti iniziative per migliorare la gestione economica e amministrativa della Santa Sede e dello Stato della Città del Vaticano.

Questi cambiamenti avviati dalla nuova Segreteria per l'Economia seguono un'analisi dettagliata dei risultati e delle raccomandazioni della Pontificia Commissione Referente di Studio e di Indirizzo sull'Organizzazione della Struttura Economico-Amministrativa della Santa Sede (COSEA) e sono considerati essenziali per affrontare le debolezze e i rischi identificati e allo stesso tempo per creare in futuro una nuova piattaforma per il miglioramento economico gestionale.

Tutte le modifiche hanno ricevuto il sostegno nei recenti incontri del Consiglio per l'Economia (5 luglio) e del Consiglio dei Cardinali (1-4 luglio) e sono state approvate dal Santo Padre.

Le modifiche includono:

1. l'APSA
2. il FONDO PENSIONI
3. i MEDIA VATICANI
4. lo IOR

Il Cardinale Pell ha comunicato di essere molto lieto per l'approvazione di queste importanti iniziative da parte del Santo Padre. Inoltre, sia il Cardinale Pell sia il Consiglio per l'Economia sono grati per il contributo regolare e il costante sostegno del Santo Padre.

"Ci sono molte sfide e molto lavoro da fare. Dalle raccomandazioni della COSEA risultano esserci diverse questioni, come il trasferimento della Sezione Ordinaria dell'APSA, il Fondo Pensioni, i Media Vaticani e lo IOR, che devono essere affrontate con urgenza. Il Santo Padre ha chiaramente espresso che tali cambiamenti avvengano rapidamente."

Il Cardinale Prefetto ha anche annunciato la creazione di un piccolo Project Management Office (PMO), guidato da Danny Casey, già Business Manager dell'Arcidiocesi di Sydney, per implementare e introdurre alcuni dei cambiamenti proposti, iniziando con il trasferimento della Sezione Ordinaria dell'APSA alla Segreteria per l'Economia. Il PMO riporterà direttamente al Prefetto della Segreteria per l'Economia.

A settembre 2014 la Segreteria per l'Economia inizierà a preparare il budget per il 2015. L'obiettivo è che tutti i dicasteri e le amministrazioni redigano un budget cui attenersi durante l'anno. La spesa (nella struttura concordata) sarà di responsabilità di ogni dicastero e amministrazione. La spesa sarà confrontata con il budget nel corso del 2015 e ogni eventuale eccesso di spesa sarà di competenza del dicastero o dell'amministrazione in questione.

"Siamo ansiosi di andare avanti con questo lavoro nei prossimi mesi."

Allegati

1. APSA

La Sezione Ordinaria dell'APSA viene trasferita alla Segreteria per l'Economia. Questo è un passo importante per consentire alla Segreteria per l'Economia di esercitare le proprie responsabilità di controllo economico e vigilanza sulle agenzie della Santa Sede, comprese le politiche e le procedure degli acquisti e la distribuzione adeguata delle risorse umane come definito nel Motu Proprio Fidelis dispensator et Prudens.

Il resto del personale dell'APSA concentrerà le proprie attività esclusivamente sul ruolo di Tesoreria della Santa Sede e dello Stato della Città del Vaticano. Un compito importante iniziale sarà quello di continuare a ristabilire rapporti stretti con tutte le principali banche centrali, come raccomandato da MoneyVal, per continuare a garantire la liquidità e la stabilità finanziaria della Santa Sede. Tutti gli istituti sovrani avranno un account presso l'APSA che avrà funzione di Tesoreria per gli stessi istituti.

2. FONDO PENSIONI

Il Consiglio per l'Economia ha nominato un comitato tecnico per studiare la situazione del Fondo Pensioni e formulare proposte al Consiglio per l'Economia entro la fine del 2014. Il Consiglio ha riconosciuto che le pensioni attuali e per la prossima generazione sono al sicuro, ma il fondo deve garantire ci siano disponibilità sufficienti anche per le generazioni future in un mondo in continua evoluzione. Molti paesi occidentali hanno dovuto affrontare sfide sistema pensionistico negli ultimi anni. Si prevede che i nuovi statuti siano disposti entro la fine del 2014 per adeguare l'organizzazione del Fondo Pensioni alla nuova struttura economica-amministrativa della Santa Sede.

Il comitato tecnico sarà guidato dal Segretario Prelato del Consiglio, Monsignor Brian Ferme. Quattro esperti laici contribuiranno con la loro esperienza professionale e competenza: Bernhard Kotanko (Austria), Andrea Lesca (Italia), Antoine de Salins (Francia), Prof. Nino Savelli (Italia). In aggiunta, ci saranno i rappresentanti del Consiglio per l'Economia, della Segreteria di Stato e del Fondo Pensioni.

3. I MEDIA VATICANI

E' stato nominato un comitato per proporre una riforma per i Media Vaticani. Il comitato pubblicherà una relazione e un piano di riforma entro i prossimi 12 mesi dopo aver esaminato la relazione della COSEA. Gli obiettivi sono di adeguare i media della Santa Sede alle nuove tendenze di consumo dei media, di migliorarne il coordinamento e di raggiungere progressivamente e sensibilmente risparmi finanziari considerevoli. Sulla base delle esperienze positive con le recenti iniziative come la Pope App e l'account Twitter del Santo Padre, i canali digitali saranno rafforzati per garantire che i messaggi del Santo Padre raggiungano maggiormente i fedeli in tutto il mondo, soprattutto tra i giovani.

I membri del comitato sono stati scelti tra il personale del Vaticano ed esperti senior internazionali. Sono stati designati per la loro competenza nella comunicazione, riflettendo l'universalità della Chiesa Cattolica.

Esperti senior internazionali: Lord Christopher Patten (UK, fungerà da presidente del comitato), Gregory Erlandson (USA), Daniela Frank (Germania), Padre Eric Salobir OP (Francia), Leticia Soberon (Spagna, Messico) e George Yeo (Singapore).

Personale Vaticano: Monsignor Paul Tighe (Segretario del Pontificio Consiglio delle Comunicazioni Sociali, fungerà da segretario del comitato), Giacomo Ghisani (Radio Vaticana), Monsignor Carlo Maria Polvani (Segreteria di Stato), Monsignor Lucio Adrián Ruiz (Internet Service del Vaticano) e Prof. Giovanni Maria Vian (L'Osservatore Romano).

4. IOR

Dopo la conferma della missione della IOR da parte del Santo Padre il 7 aprile 2014 e sotto la guida del Segreteria per l'Economia e del Consiglio per l'Economia, lo IOR ha annunciato il piano per la prossima fase di sviluppo.

Il Consiglio dei Cardinali del Santo Padre (C9), la Segreteria per l'Economia, la Commissione di Vigilanza dei Cardinali e l'attuale Consiglio di Sovrintendenza dello IOR hanno deciso congiuntamente che questo piano deve essere svolto da un nuovo gruppo dirigente guidato da Jean-Baptiste de Franssu.

De Franssu assumerà la carica di nuovo presidente dello Ior il 9 luglio 2014. Ernst von Freyberg ha accettato di effettuare un periodo di transizione al fine di garantire un adeguato passaggio di consegne.

Jean-Baptiste de Franssu ha detto che "è un onore essere stato chiamato ad attuare i cambiamenti che oggi sono necessari per trasformare ulteriormente lo IOR in un fornitore dedicato di servizi per la Chiesa".

Nel corso dei prossimi tre anni, gli Statuti dello IOR saranno rivisti e le attività saranno ridisegnate, seguendo tre priorità strategiche:

1. Rafforzare il business dello IOR;
2. Spostare gradualmente la gestione del patrimonio a un nuovo e centrale Vatican Asset Management (VAM), al fine di superare la duplicazione degli sforzi in questo campo tra le istituzioni Vaticane;
3. Concentrare le attività dello IOR sulla consulenza finanziaria e sui servizi di pagamento per il clero, le congregazioni, diocesi e impiegati laici del Vaticano.

Lo IOR è in una fase di transizione pacifica. La prima fase delle riforme, guidata da Ernst von Freyberg, è stata completata. Sono stati fatti eccellenti passi avanti attraverso l'adesione agli standard internazionali; la trasparenza che ne è conseguita è evidente nella seconda relazione annuale che è stata completamente revisionata da Deloitte. E' stato messo in atto un nuovo sistema di anti-riciclaggio e si continua a fare ogni sforzo per conformarsi alla disciplina attuale. Il reparto di Compliance interno, coadiuvato da Promontory, ha esaminato attentamente 18.000 clienti. La leadership di Von Freyberg ha preparato il campo per l'inizio della prossima fase guidata dal presidente eletto Jean-Baptiste de Franssu che si dedicherà a tempo pieno al suo nuovo compito. A causa di altri impegni, il presidente von Freyberg non è in grado di dedicarsi a tempo pieno allo IOR.

Nei diversi enti finanziari che riportano alla Segreteria per l'Economia si è seguito un modello generale di esperta cooperazione clerico-laica. La natura esatta di questa cooperazione governativa allo IOR è ancora da determinare. I cinque membri della Commissione Cardinalizia continueranno a essere coinvolti e saranno raggiunti dal Cardinale Josip Bozanić di Zagabria, Croazia. Tali membri sono il Cardinale Santos Abril y Castello (Arciprete della Basilica Papale di Santa Maria Maggiore), il cardinale Thomas Christopher Collins (Arcivescovo di Toronto), il cardinale Pietro Parolin (Segretario di Stato), il cardinale Christoph Schönborn (Arcivescovo di Vienna) e il cardinale Jean-Louis Tauran (Presidente del Pontificio Consiglio per il Dialogo Interreligioso).

Sei nuovi membri laici saranno nominati al Consiglio dello IOR tra i quali Jean-Baptiste de Franssu (Francia, con l'incarico di Presidente), Clemens Boersig (Germania), Prof. Mary Ann Glendon (USA) e Sir Michael Hintze (UK).

Monsignor Alfred Xuereb, segretario generale della Segreteria per l'Economia, sarà segretario senza diritto di voto del Consiglio dello IOR.

Monsignor Battista Ricca rimane il Prelato dello IOR.
